Hi Robert,

My deadline is 5p ET this Friday. My story will focus on the EPA's final framework rules for TSCA. Outside experts have said that the final framework rules could potentially weaken the law, making it much less stringent. There are specific areas that experts have expressed concern over – such as narrowing the conditions of use – and I would like to speak with someone at EPA to get the agency's perspective on this.

Thanks so much,

Annie

Good afternoon Annie,

Can you send a hard deadline and some questions, please? Also, will your story just focus on the evaluation process, or are you looking at specific chemicals?

Thanks, R.

Hi there,

I'm a reporter for Scientific American, and I'm working on a story about the EPA's final framework rules for TSCA – I would like to interview someone at EPA for the story, or at least get a comment. Is someone at EPA available for a quick phone interview?

My deadline is EOD Friday, July 21. Thanks so much,

Annie
